MAN WITH STAKES

I saw a man standing in the centre of a circle and the circle had 12 stakes about one metre apart from one another. Each stake was firmly anchored into the earth. The 12 stakes which were like 4x2"s, represented the foundational pillars of this man's life and what he was building his life upon. The stakes were his security.

The man was at peace and was extremely comfortable knowing that his life was in order and that everything was going well. I then saw this massive hand enter the vision and grab hold of one of the stakes. The hand was massive compared to the stakes. The hand grabbed the stake, uprooting it from the earth and tossed the stake into eternity.

The man in the centre of the stakes started to panic and had a visible look on his face of sheer horror as the hand started to remove each stake one by one and toss them all into eternity. As the hand would come down the man would reach for the stake, as an attempt to hold onto each stake, but the hand would always beat the man to each stake, removing it from the earth.

This happened until all the stakes were removed, which left the man in a state of brokenness and desolation, as he watched everything he had trusted in being removed, hanging his head down in a state of absolute despair. All that was left in the vision was the man in this state. Then the hand appeared again, but this time it was reaching down to the man, as an offer of "take My hand", and let me lift you out of this reality, which you have trusted in for so long.

The man lifted his hand up while his head stayed lowered and the massive hand took hold of his hand and lifted him out of the vision.

Greg Simnor - 2014

INTERPRETATION

The big hand was the Father and the man in the middle represented the church who trust in themselves, having other things as their foundational pillars, as opposed to God Himself. A church that is still the centre of its own lives.

Two Swords

I see you fighting with two swords, one in each hand. One sword represents truth, and the other represents righteousness. The handles are of red velvet, and this represents love.

Steve McCracken, 6 November 2017

“ I WAS DRAWN TOWARDS THE FACT THAT YOU CANNOT USE A SWORD UNLESS YOU CAN HOLD THE HANDLE. ”

I saw you as miners with helmet lights on. I saw you go from one blackened tunnel into another tunnel on a ninety degree left hand turn and as you entered this new tunnel, it was only then that I noticed the lights shining brightly from your helmet lights... What do miners do? They dig for treasure. As you entered this new tunnel it was only then that I noticed the lights actually shining from your helmet... You're in a blackened tunnel which says to me the lights of revelation for many hasn't been shining but as we took a ninety degree turn then the lights came on.

I believe you not just your senior leaders are called to in God's word. And I'm reminded of an AW Tozer quote... "How tragic, that in this evil day we've had our seeking done for us by our teachers." That's in many parts of the body of Christ, the reality. Teach me, so I can accept what you say and that's what I'll believe. God commended the Berean's as one's who heard the word and then went to search out, is what they're saying actually correct. See you hear that in many places now, you would say, you're dishonouring, you should just...no. No. God is calling you... to mine... to mine for truth. God wants us individually to seek after, to search for, to look for and to know truth. So this is an individual word but stay with me... Jeremiah 29:13-14...

13 YOU WILL SEEK ME AND FIND ME WHEN YOU SEEK ME WITH ALL YOUR HEART. 14 I WILL BE FOUND BY YOU," DECLARES THE LORD, "AND WILL BRING YOU BACK FROM CAPTIVITY. I WILL GATHER YOU FROM ALL THE NATIONS AND PLACES WHERE I HAVE BANISHED YOU," DECLARES THE LORD, "AND WILL BRING YOU BACK TO THE PLACE FROM WHICH I CARRIED YOU INTO EXILE."

...I felt God say that seeking God is seeking Truth and God will reveal truth to seekers.

...The next part of unpacking this picture, I feel the discovery of Truth as evidenced by the light shining...I knew you had helmets on but I only noticed the lights when there was that turn... I felt God say...the discovery of Truth as evidenced by the lights shining, will come when a shift of position takes place and is evidenced by the ninety degree left hand turn... Father said to tell you to ask Him... Ask Father is there a shift of position that needs to take place in order for me to step into the fullness of your intention? ...I felt God say one of the shifts of position is the belief...

HE SAID MULTIPLE PEOPLE WALKING TOGETHER AND ENTERING THE NEW TUNNEL TOGETHER.

says Father...that you can seek Me not relying on others...No one person will receive all Truth...

I feel like as I'm saying this, there's something coming up that's going to be another shift, he's preparing you will you walk together individually seeking but He highlighted to me that the picture was of multiple people walking together, it wasn't just of multiple people walking, it was of multiple people walking together. God doesn't waste words. You can have multiple people walking but not together, they can be side by side. He said multiple people walking together and entering the new tunnel together.

MINERS FOR TRUTH

that Father wants to bring revelation... to you from Him not just to you through others...

Father further highlighted to me that the picture was of multiple people walking together and entering the new tunnel together and yet it was the collective individual helmet lights that lit up the tunnel... One helmet light from one person in a tunnel what I saw would not have lit it up as a group of individual collective lighting it up. Your light shines brighter in community than it does in isolation and there is a time for every person to do their own seeking not relying on others... This is my invitation to you

Father says invitation; this is your invitation that you can seek Me not relying on others. And then the next sentence He said is also equally at times for every person to walk more together, with others, in revelation in Truth AGREEMENT.

Steve McCracken 5 May 2018

FATHER SAYS

INVITATION;

THIS IS YOUR INVITATION THAT YOU CAN SEEK ME NOT RELYING ON OTHERS.

HOLY SPIRIT IS OUR TEACHER

The Spirit is saying "the time is NOW to NOT LOOK to man for your FIRST PLACE as teacher, but to Me! I AM, to be your Teacher DIRECTLY."

The TIME IS NOW for man to MOVE ASIDE and take a step back into his position of SECOND. Man has a role but it is not as Teacher. Primarily, man is to teach or testify of what the Father is doing in them and what the Father is revealing.

Man's role is of a letter or signpost. A letter or signpost who points everyone to the Teacher. As a signpost we make sure every follower is directed to the Teacher and as signposts, we take every measure and effort, to ensure we are not becoming the teacher in the people's eyes through the decisions and choices we make.

Matthew 23:8-10; 1 John 2:27; John 14:25-26, 16:13-15; Galatians 1:11-12; 1 Corinthians 2:9-12; Jeremiah 31:34.

Greg Simnor, 21 March 2020

The TIME is now for the CROWD to become the CORE.

I saw 60,000 people (the CROWD) all take their seats in a massive stadium, while the coach and the 22 professionals who were paid very well to play the game, entertained the CROWD. Those in the CROWD started to be awakened to the reality that they too were supposed to be playing the game and no longer watching it. They started to see who they had actually been created to BE and from this posture of being, how they were created to live. No longer a passive, go along CROWD follower, but an active player in the game.

CROWD TO CORE

I saw these CROWD followers start to make their way out of their seats and down to pitch level, getting ready to take up their positions on the field. Many were leaving their seats in droves, ready to step up and into the game, only for them to get to pitch level and be faced with the STEWARDS who are positioned strategically around the pitch for the very purpose of CROWD control and not letting the CROWD onto the field.

The STEWARDS, who are put there by the Football Association for the task of keeping the CROWDS off the pitch, can be highly aggressive at times, and their role is to ensure the 2 coach's, with their entourage and their 22 professional players, are playing the game to the highest level, keeping the CROWDS off the field of play...

...God is taking back His position as the HEAD of all roles that is associated with the football team. Owner, Coach, Trainer, Manager, Doctor, Skills, Nutrition, Supporter and removing all the stewards out of the way, along with the Football Association, so the church can get back on the field and out of the STANDS.

As the Football Association attempts to come up with ways to try and keep the game going, to keep the manager and the players entertaining the crowd, it's important the CROWD stand firm and resist these attempts, and seek the One who will divinely impart what is required to enter and play on the field, the game of one's life, as a team.

He will get us all in shape as we leave the comfort and safety of our seats and make our way down to the field and start to play our part in His team.

ALL WE HAVE TO DO IS GET OUT OF
THE STANDS AND MAKE OUR WAY
ONTO THE FIELD AND HIS DIVINE
ETERNAL GRACE WILL COME UPON ALL THOSE WHO DO.

IT'S MY TIME

"Be still and know that I am God, I will be exalted upon the earth. Behold everything and anything that has raised itself against me, I am bringing low."
Psalm 46:10

I am stilling your busyness oh man. I am shutting your mouth. I am laying waste every idol, every foundation, every hobby, every dependence and reliance. Everything that can be shaken is taken away that only I the unshaken will remain. The world and its systems have come to a halt, wheels stopped turning, knees brought low and hearts made ready for the King.

"IN THE WILDERNESS, IN THE DESOLATION AND STILLNESS, IN THE NON-DOING AND UNDOING, YOU WILL FIND ME."

In the wilderness, in the desolation and stillness, in the non-doing and undoing, you will find Me. In humility and gentleness, you will behold Me. Reach out, groan and cry if you must. Call upon me and I will hear. I am your Saviour and today I will be your Lord.

Playtime is over. Look, the coming waves have lapped up the sandcastles you have built and lived in. It's time to come home. Return to where you were made and where you were truly destined to be. Your place from the beginning, your place by Me.

Arise now, leave your playthings behind and take your place. Get ready for My return.

I, your glory awaits. Now that I have wrenched you from your busyness, now that I have gotten your attention, now that I have given you time...Become!

Arise shine for your light has come. The glory of the Lord is upon you. Live and breathe from My being. Take up your mat and walk. Throw away everything that hinders, run with all your might. My power is made perfect in weakness, My joy is your strength. Fear not, take courage, don now your robes and trim your lamps for you are called into such a time as this.

This is My time. Now is My time. You have called me Saviour, today I will be your Lord."

Noel Mendoza, 24 March 2020

"PLAYTIME IS OVER. LOOK, THE COMING WAVES HAVE LAPPED UP THE SANDCASTLES YOU HAVE BUILT AND LIVED IN. IT'S TIME TO COME HOME."

Call to Me — I Will Answer

God reminded me of this message from Steve to leaders from May 2018 [see 'Miners for Truth' page 4].

There is a time for everyone to do their own seeking, not relying on others.

It is only the Holy Spirit, not a person who is the Revealer of Truth.

Will you walk together, individually seeking? 'It was the collective, individual lights that lit up the tunnel'.

There is an invitation from Father.

While the world is operating in fear and self-preservation, we are called to come 'underground with Him' (mining Truth). Through the digging for Him - in the Spirit, we are collectively drawing near to Him and one another. Instead of fear, to receive Love revealed. Instead of self-preservation, coming to know Him where Grace enables the losing of our life for His sake.

He also reminded me of Jonny Gilling's message from a while back where Jonny describes a picture God gave him of journeying through a blackened tunnel - but when the lights went on there were jewels embedded in the walls.

"For if you cry for discernment, lift your voice for understanding; If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures; Then you will discern the fear of the Lord And discover the knowledge of God." Proverbs 2:3-5

"She is more precious than jewels; And nothing you desire compares with her." Proverbs 3:15

Jeremiah 33:3 sums up the message to us:

"Call to Me and I will answer you, and I will tell you great and mighty things, which you do not know."

Not looking to man, or to familiar ways we've leaned on in the past - but to Him.

Kristen Rowe, 25 March 2020

I was with my parents and we were going into an old house that they owned. It had been left empty for a long time. There were remnants of vines on the outside, and the interior of the house was very dated. It was 3 levels and had a windy staircase and mezzanine floor.

I recalled the house from the past and the areas that I'd lived in, as well as seeing past writing that had been all over the walls. The house felt empty and like my parents had held plans for me and it - but they weren't really my plans anymore.

I went into the backyard to have a look around. I ended up walking to the very back of the huge section, which was all very overgrown with vines and trees. The ground was sludgy and had deep swampy water. I got to the back of the property and I was standing by an old tree when I realised I didn't know how to get back to the house.

The water was thick black sludge and mud and was very deep – well over my head. I didn't know where to step, or how to make it back. I knew if I stepped out, I'd end up sinking down over my head to the black stinky sludge! So I clung to the tree and stayed where I was.

Then a door opened from the neighbouring house - and out came Greg! He didn't know I was there - but I was really relieved, and I knew I had to yell out to him for help. In a panic & hurry I yelled 'DAAADD!!!'... I was kind of surprised by what had come out of my mouth in the moment!

But it didn't matter, and Greg responded to my call and in an instant was right there beside me at the tree. When I had cried out, Paul Costelloe also appeared out of nowhere and jumped into the sludge and was swimming out to me. I was relieved to see them. They'd come to get me from where I was, without any second thought or hesitation.

The dream reinforced for me His heart within our spiritual family and leadership, and how 'for us' they are.

BACKYARD RESCUE

Kristen Rowe, 5 November 2020

HOUSES TO BE BURNED

There was a cluster of houses that had been uplifted and relocated from their original position – to sit together in the middle of a bridge. The houses looked like ‘San Francisco type’ houses – around 3 stories high each, old wooden painted ‘grand old lady’ type houses, that were interconnected (‘one joint unit’ of houses - but accessible by interior doors, to pass through inside between the houses). The houses had been transported together to a new temporary site to sit in the middle, centre of the bridge.

At one end of the houses, there were crowds gathered. They were waiting for what was about to happen next. The event and crowds were kept in order and organised by the authorities who were overseeing the event.

IT WAS TO BE A CONTROLLED BURN

It was to be a controlled burn of these old houses. There was a sense of knowing amongst the crowd gathered that this is what they were there to observe/ witness. This was something that’s not seen everyday – it was to be a ‘spectacle’. The crowd knew they were gathered to observe the destroying of these old houses by fire – they had come to watch.

I was there with a small group of people – who were connected to these houses. We had the chance to walk through the houses together as a final ‘goodbye’. We walked through the middle-inside of the houses, starting from the far end house, inside, all the way through to the last house. There wasn’t a sense of grief, or any other strong emotions from the group walking through, the overall feeling was a resigned acceptance from everyone – what was set to happen, must happen! It was time. Everything had been set in place.

As we walked through the middle of the houses, we came across other people inside. Possibly squatters, who had decided to live there. They were sitting around on lounge suites ‘relaxing’. There were also some people who were in rooms behind closed doors which we discovered as we opened some of the doors as we passed through. We wondered why were these people there?? – when we all knew what was going to take place! The moving of these old houses had been intentional and they had been uprooted from their original site, re-positioned, and set in place, for what needed to happen next. These people had chosen to stay inside – and to occupy what wasn’t theirs, a space they weren’t meant to be in.

After walking down the middle of the last house, we exited through the fire escape. The crowd knew that we were connected to the houses, so they were waiting for us to exit the houses and take our place in the allocated area in front of the crowds that had been roped off with a velvet rope.

As everyone was getting into position behind the rope, I went over to a ‘fire official’ who was standing in front of the crowds, keeping an eye on the event. I told him – there are people still inside. There wasn’t a reaction from the official, and there was no panic from anyone else around. It was just a sense of knowing from all– that the houses must be set alight, and burned. This was the determined outcome. What would be, would be.

The event was about to start - the ‘fire’ was being lifted up and positioned in place against the top edge of the house closest to the crowd. All knew that once it took, the houses would be engulfed like tinder and would blaze to the ground.

End of the dream.

“THE OVERALL FEELING WAS A RESIGNED ACCEPTANCE FROM EVERYONE - WHAT WAS SET TO HAPPEN, MUST HAPPEN! IT WAS TIME.”

LEAVING THE BUILDING

I was in an old villa. I got the impression it was furnished and there were a number of people there and that I belonged there. Somehow we understood that there was fire or some kind of desolation outside and that even though we were safe while we were in the house, there was the sense we needed to leave but weren't quite sure what to do.

Then Greg and several others came in and brought with them a sense of urgency and excitement as Greg told us we needed to get into the river. I understood that he had come back to tell us, but I had a choice to stay or go. I had no sense of urgency to go and was waiting to say goodbye to Dani when I realised the house was empty – no furniture and virtually no people.

As I was absorbing this, with still no sense that I should go, someone went over to the bay window where I saw a pulpit, and lying on the floor and poking out from the pulpit was a sword wrapped in a red and gold damask throw blanket. They picked it up and said "We'll need this". The way I saw that was as if the colour in the room became really muted and I saw the richness and brightness of the cloth.

And then I saw myself outside the house walking with a group – no river in sight and really no idea where I was going - but seeing the utter desolation around me and knowing that same sense of belonging that I had felt in the house.
